A. Manner of Delegating

- i. The function of the LLB is to develop, monitor, and enforce policy and delegate to the Director of Ministries the overall supervision of the ministry of the Congregation. The LLB reserves the authority to assist the Director of Ministries in the implementation of such policies by providing guidance and counsel, providing appropriate personnel to assist the Director of Ministries in carrying out his duties, and providing active participation in operations as the LLB deems necessary and appropriate.
- ii. Except for assignments of its own work to committees, consultants, or officers, the LLB shall delegate authority only to the Director of Ministries and, in consultation with the Director of Ministries, to the Director of Finances. Any other person or group performing operational functions shall receive authority from the Director of Ministries or a person assigned such authority by the Director of Ministries.
 - a. The LLB shall relate to all ministry staff officially only through the Director of Ministries, provided that the LLB may, in consultation with the Director of Ministries, communicate with and provide direction to the Director of Finances through the Executive Committee, the FOC, or as a committee of the whole, as it deems appropriate.
 - b. Members of the LLB shall be prudent in their contact with ministry staff and shall keep the Director of Ministries informed of significant contacts with any staff member.
- iii. The LLB shall address only broad levels of issues in policies of purpose or governance policies, leaving lesser levels (i.e., operational policies) to the discretion of the Director of Ministries. The Director of Ministries may develop operational guidelines, rules, or procedures and may make decisions as he deems appropriate as long as governing policies adopted by the LLB are observed.

- iv. The authority of the Director of Ministries shall begin where the explicit pronouncements of the LLB end. Except as required by the Constitution, By-laws, governing policies or law, decisions of the Director of Ministries do not need approval by the LLB.

B. Actions Requiring Lay Leadership Board Approval

The following is a list of actions that require LLB approval as delineated in other governing documents in these Policies:

- i. The selection of the auditor.
- ii. Receipt and review of financial reports.
- iii. The appointment of legal counsel.
- iv. The sale of securities.
- v. The purchase, sale, transfer or mortgage of real estate in accordance with the By-laws.
- vi. The approval of an annual budget.
- vii. The appointment of Officers of the LLB.
- viii. The approval of this Policy Manual.
- ix. The extension of a Call to Called Workers other than Pastors. The Lutheran Church Missouri-Synod term for this type of call is "Minister of Religion - Commissioned," and it includes commissioned workers who are rostered church members who serve in a non-ordained position, such as teachers, directors of Christian education and other commissioned positions recognized by the Synod.
- x. The peaceful release of any called worker (e.g., minister of religion - ordained and minister of religion – commissioned). For purposes of this policy, a "peaceful release" means a voluntary, non-disciplinary release from a Call.
 - A peaceful release is not based upon grounds for removal under the Constitution or By-Laws of Christ Lutheran Church, including persistent adherence to false doctrine, scandalous life, willful neglect of official duties, evident and protracted incapacity to perform the functions of the office, or any allegation of misconduct.

- A peaceful release is also not the same as non-reappointment of a call. Calls can be designated as “tenured” (permanent in nature) or “non-tenured” (for a limited period of time). A non-tenured call assumes that the worker’s relationship with the organization will be re-evaluated at the end of a given period.
 - The determination of whether to reappoint a non-tenured call is delegated to the SEDOM.
 - A Reduction in Force (RIF) can also result in the termination of a non-tenured worker before the expiration of the term, but a RIF action requires adherence to synodical guidelines and Christ Lutheran Church employment policies and must be driven by strict financial or programmatic necessity, never individual performance.
- A peaceful release shall not constitute removal for cause and shall not be used as a substitute for the disciplinary procedures set forth in the Constitution, By-Laws, or Policy Manual.

C. Director of Ministries’ Function

The Director of Ministries shall:

- i. Be empowered to take all actions and make all administrative decisions that are deemed necessary to attain the Desired Outcomes, except those which:
 - (a) violate laws, applicable regulations, orders of courts, or commonly accepted business and professional ethics, or
 - (b) violate the Constitution, By-laws, or this Policy Manual.
- ii. Provide support and guidance to, and receive input and assistance from, the Executive Team in assisting and monitoring the day-to-day operations of the church.

[Last updated on 07/08/2024]

D. Director of Ministries' Accountability

The Director of Ministries shall be accountable to the LLB and the Congregation, for the conduct of himself and the following:

- i. Achievement of the Desired Outcomes through personal and ministry staff action.
- ii. Compliance of personal and ministry staff actions with limits established in the Director of Ministries' duties and applicable policies.
- iii. Provision of adequate counsel to the LLB through personal and ministry staff action, including counsel on social, legal, and other changes relevant to the LLB's decision areas.
- iv. Defining and refining the Director of Ministries' position description and the position description of each of the other called Pastors.
- v. Relating with integrity, honesty, and straightforwardness to the LLB.
- vi. Compliance with all Policies.

[Last updated on 04/28/2025]

E. Called Pastor or Worker – Failure of Duty

- i. The Director of Ministries shall not fail to give immediate notice to the Chair of the LLB if any called pastor or worker has breached their duty by an act of omission or commission.
- ii. The Director of Ministries shall not fail to take the necessary action to remedy or remediate the breach within policies and shall report the results to the LLB.
 - A. If the breach is not immediately correctable, the Director of Ministries shall establish and implement corrective actions, reporting them and gaining approval of a deadline from the LLB for complete correction.
 - i. The Director of Ministries shall continue to report in a timely fashion on the actions taken and their results until the breach is corrected, if such breach is correctable.
 - ii. The Director of Ministries shall give immediate notice when it is recognized that a deadline will be missed, and a new plan for action shall be formulated if the delay is excessive.

- iii. The Director of Ministries may use internal or external resources to correct the exceeded Director of Ministries' Limitation without violating the Director of Ministries' Limitations Policy.
- B. The LLB shall review all actions of the Director of Ministries to remediate his conduct or that of any other called pastor or worker for its soundness as a test of ethical and prudent behavior.
- iii. The Director of Ministries shall recommend processes to avoid recurrence of any breach of duty by the Director of Ministries or other called Pastor or worker.
- iv. In the event of repeated occurrences of a breach of duty by the Director of Ministries or other called Pastor, the Chair will conduct a performance evaluation or investigation of the Pastor, as is appropriate, and a discussion with the full LLB concerning the Pastor's performance and the Chair's evaluation thereof.
- v. In the event the breach of duty is of such a nature that would support removal of the Pastor or other called worker under the Constitution and By-Law of CLC, the LLB shall use the following process:
 - A. Jurisdiction: The Christ Lutheran Church Constitution provides that the "Congregation . . . delegates its power to (manage and administer its internal and external affairs) to the Lay Leadership Board" with only limited exceptions. When there is conduct by a called worker of the Congregation that involves "persistent adherence to false doctrine, scandalous life, willful neglect of official duties, or evident and protracted incapacity to perform the functions of the office to which the individual has been called", the LLB is required to investigate whether there are sufficient grounds for such removal, in consultation with the Nebraska District of the LCMS.
 - B. Investigative Process: The LLB shall initiate an investigation and prepare written findings and determinations. Such findings and determinations shall be prepared with the advice and counsel of the President of the Nebraska District of the LCMS.
 - C. Administrative Leave: During the investigation the LLB may place the Pastor or called worker on administrative leave for such period as the LLB determines appropriate and in the best interests of the Congregation.

- D. Upon finalization of the findings and determinations in written form, the LLB shall meet with the Pastor or called worker and provide a copy of the written findings and determinations, allowing the Pastor or called worker seven (7) calendar days to respond to same in writing. The Pastor or called worker may also request a meeting to discuss with the LLB the findings and determinations and his or her response thereto.
 - E. The LLB informs the Pastor or called worker of the discipline or action regarding the call.
 - F. The LLB may initiate discussion regarding a voluntary resolution of the issues relating to the Pastor's or called worker's call.
 - G. If a voluntary resolution cannot be attained and the LLB determines that the matter calls for the removal of the Pastor or called worker, the LLB may elect to call a congregational meeting at which time the LLB will present its findings and determinations and recommendations to the Congregation.
- i. The LLB Chair opens congregational meetings with prayer, reviews the notice of meeting, and the agenda.
 - ii. Introduction – Read formal hearing process, e.g.:
 - 1. A hearing held by the Congregation pursuant to the Constitution of CLC; it is not a public meeting, and only congregational members may be present.
 - 2. The press is excluded.
 - 3. The Congregation sits as the jury and is not a direct participant in the process other than to hear the evidence and make a determination.
 - 4. Comments by the Congregation will only be permitted during the process as a part of the presentation by either the LLB or the Pastor or called worker.
 - 5. If a congregational member wishes to comment, he or she must sign in, confirm his or her membership with CLC, then must speak from the lectern.

6. No speaking from the seats of the meeting space will be permitted.
7. Comment will be limited to two (2) minutes.
- iii. Pertinent provisions of the constitution are read.
- iv. The LLB findings and determinations in printed form are handed out to the congregational members present; copies will be available upon request to those not present.
- v. The LLB Findings and Determinations are read to congregation by the President of the LLB.
- vi. The Pastor or called worker is provided opportunity to present his or her response and provide written copies thereof to the Congregation.
- vii. The LLB is provided with an opportunity to provide rebuttal material, witnesses, or evidence.
- viii. THERE IS NO CONGREGATIONAL PARTICIPATION EXCEPT THROUGH THE FORMAL PRESENTATION PROCESS AS OUTLINED ABOVE.
- ix. The congregation votes by secret ballot.
- x. Ballots counted.
- xi. Results read.
- xii. Meeting adjourned.

Appendix B: Conflict-of-Interest Policy

Preamble

Election to the Lay Leadership Board or acceptance of a Call to the ministry of our Lord and Savior at Christ Lutheran Church is an honor with which come certain responsibilities. Each individual has the duty not to advance personal interests in a way that could injure or take advantage of the church. In order to avoid even the appearance of impropriety, the LLB of Christ Lutheran Church has adopted this Conflict-of-Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interest may fall into two categories; conflicts of interest per se, that is, inappropriate personal gain derived from the pursuit of normal duties; and conflicts of commitment, which refers to the choices Called/Professional staff or LLB members make about their priorities, especially the allocation of their time to other organizations in which they also serve.

This policy is intended to comply with the procedure prescribed in Nebraska Revised Statute sec. 21-1987 (Reissue 1997), governing conflicts of interest for directors of nonprofit corporations and in fulfillment of Part II, paragraph A, section 1, sub-section o, of the Bylaws of Christ Lutheran Church. In the event there is an inconsistency between the requirements and procedures prescribed herein and those in Section 21-1987 of Nebraska Laws, the statute shall control.

Disclosure Requirement

This conflict-of-interest policy is designed to recognize and deal with the real and perceived conflicts that will arise. The most basic and important procedure for dealing with these conflicts is full and open disclosure of potential conflicts between an individual's ministry-related obligations and responsibilities on the one hand, and outside professional goals and/or interests on the other.

Recognizing and disclosing the existence of conflicts of interest and commitment must be, primarily, the responsibility of individual members of the LLB and individual members of the Called/Professional staff.

We must be guided by a sense of personal responsibility, mindful of the trust that our brothers and sisters in Christ have placed in us. The standard that should be applied in thinking about conflicts of interest is how matters will appear to an outside third party. In this respect, actions by individuals should protect the integrity of Christ Lutheran Church.

Disclosure allows the LLB to identify and address conflicts of interest. The LLB has a responsibility to help individuals resolve, or at least minimize, conflicts of interest. The Director of Ministries has a special responsibility of creating an environment that encourages full disclosure.

Examples of activities which would NOT constitute a violation of this policy and need NOT be disclosed are; service in the National Guard or a reserve formation; circuit, district, or Synod activities; attendance at professional development events.

Examples of an activity which COULD constitute a violation of this policy and DOES need to be disclosed are; a personal or family relationship with a vendor to the church; receipt of money from congregation members of more than $100.00 (since such amounts must meet the tax-free gift provision of Internal Revenue Code 102(a) or else be considered taxable income).

Family Relationships Involving Church Leadership

Because the Congregation is committed to maintaining the integrity of its governance and ministry decision-making processes, special care shall be taken when members of the same family serve in positions of leadership, governance, or employment within Christ Lutheran Church.

For purposes of this policy, "Immediate Family Member" means a spouse, parent, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, parent-in-law, child-in-law, sibling-in-law, or any individual residing in the same household.

Disclosure

Any member of the Lay Leadership Board ("LLB"), Pastor, Called Worker, Executive Team member, officer, employee, or committee member who has an Immediate Family Member serving as a Pastor, Called Worker, Executive Team member, officer, employee, or member of the LLB shall disclose that relationship to the Chair of the LLB.

Such disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the next LLB meeting.

Recusal from Personnel Matters

No member of the LLB shall participate in discussions, investigations, evaluations, compensation decisions, disciplinary actions, call matters, contract matters, peaceful release discussions, or employment decisions involving an Immediate Family Member.

The affected individual shall leave the meeting during discussion of the matter, except when requested to provide factual information, and shall not vote on the matter.

The minutes shall reflect the recusal.

Call and Release Matters

No member of the LLB shall participate in any recommendation, deliberation, or vote regarding the calling, evaluation, discipline, peaceful release, removal, compensation, or employment status of an Immediate Family Member serving as a Pastor, commissioned minister, Called Worker, or employee of the Congregation.

Determination of Conflict

If uncertainty exists concerning whether a family relationship creates a conflict requiring recusal, the disinterested members of the LLB shall determine the matter by majority vote.

Appearance of Impropriety

Even when a technical conflict of interest does not exist, members of the LLB and church leadership shall avoid participating in matters where a reasonable member of the Congregation could question the impartiality of the decision-making process due to a family relationship.

Exceptions

Nothing in this policy shall prohibit an Immediate Family Member from serving as a member of the Congregation, employee, Called Worker, committee member, officer, or member of the LLB. The purpose of this policy is not to prohibit service, but to ensure transparency, impartiality, and trust in the governance of the Congregation.

Procedures for Dealing with Conflicts of Interest

The LLB will be responsible for dealing with all conflicts of interest.

If the individual in question is a member of the LLB, he or she will notify the Chair of the LLB, or its Executive Committee, in writing, as soon as he or she realizes that a conflict exists or could exist. The individual in question will not take part in the LLB's discussion of the conflict except to disclose pertinent facts and to answer questions.

LLB members must excuse themselves from participation in the decision-making process in those instances where they have direct or indirect ownership or control of a financial interest in an entity with which the church has a relationship.

If the individual in question is a member of the Called/Professional staff, he or she will notify the Director of Ministries in writing as soon as he or she realizes that a conflict exists or could exist. The Director of Ministries will then report to the LLB or its Executive Committee. The individual in question will make himself or herself available to disclose pertinent facts and to answer questions.

In either case, the minutes of the meeting will contain the written disclosure and its disposition by the LLB, which will in all instances be guided by their consideration of the best interests of Christ Lutheran Church.

Violations of the Conflict-of-Interest Policy

Christ Lutheran Church, through the LLB, has the authority to take action against individuals who violate the conflict-of-interest policy. Sanctions, which include removal from office, are to be graduated to reflect the seriousness of the violation. In enforcing this policy, it must be recognized that conflicts are not always blatant; they are not always easily defined in terms of obvious or absolute rights and wrongs. Distinctions must be made between neglect, honest oversights, or ignorance of procedures on the one hand and willful violations on the other, especially deliberate failure to disclose relationships that cause conflict of interest.

Appendix C: Care Ministry Fund Guidelines

Connecting People to Christ, and Together Grow in His Word

OBJECTIVE: To provide a guideline for the ongoing disbursement of donated funds.

The main focus of this ministry area is to assist members and non-members with financial assistance during a crisis. The Care Ministry fund will be the dedicated account that will be used to provide financial aid. The need for financial assistance could be the result of such things as a fire, flood, accident, illness, loss of job, etc.

Appeals for contributions to this fund will be made as needed (approved by the Director of Caregiving or Executive Team) so there will always be funds available in an emergency. The Director of Ministries will be responsible for the administration of these funds.

Criteria

1. Individuals must meet with one of the pastors or appointed staff member prior to the receipt of assistance.
2. Proof of need must be presented. The pastor or the appointed staff member will complete the evaluation.
3. Members will receive preferred assistance.
4. Non-members are able to receive assistance three times in a calendar year.
5. Proof of other agencies and resources consulted is required before assistance can be given.

Evaluation Procedure

1. Original bills must be presented.
2. Name, address and phone number must accompany the original dated bill.
3. Confirmation of unpaid bill must be sought.

Funding Availability

1. Each request requires individual evaluation. The use of other agencies for collaboration is highly encouraged.
2. If the need is greater than the available funding, the request must be deferred to a potential later date. Communication with companies may allow partial payments. This can only take place if it resolves the crisis situation for a period of 30 days or more.

3. Utility and rent deposits are not a part of the ministry focus.
4. Discouraging repeat assistance is important for the individual and ministry.
5. The pastor(s) may solicit special funding. This should only occur in extreme emergency situations.

[Current as of July 8, 2024]

Appendix D: Financial Education Policy

Purpose

The Financial Education Policy shall serve to guide the on-going financial education process for the members and/or friends of Christ Lutheran and Christ Lincoln Schools.

Oversight Committee

The LLB shall serve as the oversight committee for the Financial Education Policy and the department of Biblical Generosity shall be responsible for implementation. The oversight committee may also work in conjunction with and/or delegate details to the Christ Lincoln Foundation.

Development of Financial Education Course

The department of Biblical Generosity shall assemble a team comprised of Christ Lutheran Staff and Lay Members to develop a Financial Education Course and maintain the course outline. The course outline shall address the items as outlined in the Education Issues below. All instruction shall be non-manipulative and Gospel oriented.

Course material shall be structured to target all ages with consideration to the following age segmentations:

Youth
High School/College
20-35
35-50
50-65
65+

Information about the Financial Education Course shall be part of the new member information packet and new members shall be encouraged to participate.

Education Issues

1. Spiritual – the church needs to communicate what the Bible says about money, ownership, and the eternal rewards promised for those who live and give generously. Money is a tool, a test, and a testimony.
2. Financial – Christians do not always know how to handle money wisely. With a mortgage, car payments, and credit card debt, money is tight. Money will continually be tight until they learn to spend less than they earn.
3. Limited Vision – Many Christians have a limited vision for the Church. Because their vision is limited, their giving will be limited as well.

4. Limited Relationships – If Christians believe they have limited relationships (they do not feel they are really part of what is going on) they will limit their giving.
5. Do not know they can give – Christians do not know how much they owe, much less how much they have; therefore, they assume they cannot afford to give.
6. Do not really know how to give – Christians are frequently unaware of tax-wise giving techniques. If they make a will, they forget to provide for a charity along with their heirs. They do not understand the scope of giving tools and giving strategies available. The result is ineffective giving or no giving at all.
7. Do not plan to give – Christians may plan for retirement, starting a business or a college education. However, few Christians have a plan to give.
8. Use Joyful Response, online giving, automatic bank withdrawals, text giving, or any other electronic transfer program shall be actively promoted to Christ Lutheran Church members and members shall be encouraged to use the programs.

Policy Exceptions

Any exception to this policy requires prior approval from the LLB.

[Approved 02/24/2020]

The Account Manager shall be responsible for the implementation of the policy and perform any necessary due diligence to ascertain investment suitability. [Last Amended on 01/26/2026]

Appendix G: Suspected Child Abuse Policy

If an employee of, or volunteer for, Christ Lutheran Church suspects the abuse, neglect, or endangerment of a child he or she is mandated by State law to report the suspected abuse or endangerment.

The situation is to be reported immediately to your supervisor or coordinator, who will help gather the information required for the report (see below). Your supervisor or coordinator should not make the report for you and cannot decide that a report is not warranted.

Do not react strongly to what the child tells you or make judgmental comments. Be calm.

Do show that you understand and take seriously what the child is saying. Assure the child that he/she did the right thing in telling you.

Do not interview or question the child beyond hearing what the child has to say. It is very important, especially if there might be a crime involved, that the child be interviewed by professionals, and that the child's statements are not tainted by others asking many questions.

The individual who first heard the information from the child should be the one reporting the situation to the abuse hotline. Prior to calling that hotline, attempt to obtain the following information without re interviewing the child:

- The child's full name, address and birthdate (if known).
- The parents' names, addresses, and phone numbers.
- Who you are, and why you are calling the hotline.
- How Child Protective Services can contact you (phone numbers, address, etc.)
- What happened that made you suspect that abuse and/or neglect occurred.
- Where it occurred.
- The name, address, and phone number of the person suspected of causing the abuse/neglect, if available.
- If the child is in danger now or could be in danger if he/she goes home with the parents (e.g., the parents are the cause of the abuse).

Call the Child and Adult Abuse and Neglect Hotline at 800-652-1999.

- This number is a 24-hour hotline.
- Provide as much of the above-listed information as you can. You need only report your suspicion that something happened. It is up to the professionals with experience in the investigation of child abuse to determine if abuse or neglect occurred.
- Hotline staff members are specialized workers who are trained in receiving and processing reports of child abuse and neglect. They will ask many questions about the family; it is OK if the person making the report does not have all of the answers.
- The name of the person making the call is confidential and is not given to the child or family. It is shared with law enforcement and the County Attorney. Reporting persons are protected from liability if the report is made in good faith.

It is imperative that you keep the situation and the reporting confidential. Remember that you are reporting suspected abuse. Information must only be given to the Hotline staff, to the person overseeing the area of ministry in which you serve, and to the Executive Director.

SCREENING OF EMPLOYEES AND VOLUNTEERS

All applications for employment will ask if the applicant “has ever been accused of, participated in, or been convicted of child abuse”.

Each employee of the Church and School, and each volunteer who may have contact with children, or work in areas giving access to children, shall be screened through Protect My Ministry or another service providing background checks of a similar comprehensiveness. Any information from a report will be reviewed by the manager or director of the ministry by which the person is employed, or for which the person is performing volunteer work, as well as the Executive Director. The decision of these reviewers as to the continued employment of a person or use of a volunteer shall be final. Any negative information received on a person shall be confidential, and its use will be restricted to those involved in deciding the continued use of the person as an employee or volunteer, as well as the employee or volunteer himself/herself.

Appendix H: Gift Acceptance Policy & Procedures

Biblical Generosity

Biblical Generosity is simply Christians using their God-given ability, time, and money to live all of life for God's purposes. Financial Biblical Generosity focuses on the stewardship process, proper accounting, and ministry implementation on behalf of God's people who provide the financial resources to carry out the Lord's work.

In the spirit of Biblical Generosity, Christ Lutheran, Christ Lutheran Foundation and Christ Lincoln Schools (herein-after referred to as "Christ Lutheran") strongly encourage gifting that will enable Christ Lutheran to fulfill its divine calling to maintain, develop, advance, enhance, and expand the ministry and mission of the congregation.

Donor Bill of Rights

(Adapted from the Council for Advancement and Support of Education, CASE)

Philanthropy is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to the quality of life. To assure that philanthropy merits the respect and trust of the general public, and that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in the not-for-profit organizations and causes they are asked to support, we declare that all donors have these rights:

1. To be informed of the organization's mission, the way the organization intends to use donated resources, and its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.
2. To be informed of the identity of those serving on the organization's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
3. To have access to the organization's most recent financial statements.
4. To be assured their gifts will be used for the purpose(s) for which they were given.
5. To receive appropriate acknowledgment and recognition.
6. To be assured that information about their donations is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
7. To expect that all relations with individuals representing organizations of interest to the donor will be professional in nature.
8. To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers or employees of the organization or hired solicitors.

9. To have the opportunity for their names to be deleted from mailing lists that an organization may intend to share.
10. To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.

Financial Gift Acceptance

This document is designed to provide guidance to facilitate the gift-giving process. The intent is to provide donors with the greatest freedom possible in formulating their gifts.

- Gifts may be accepted only for ministry and programs consistent with the beliefs and mission of Christ Lutheran. No gift may limit or restrict the purpose or mission of Christ Lutheran.
- Gifts must not inhibit gifts from other donors.
- Gifts must be designed and administered in a manner consistent with legal requirements and state and federal tax regulations.
- Christ Lutheran cannot accept gifts that involve unlawful discrimination based upon race, gender, age, national origin, disability or other basis prohibited by law and Internal Revenue regulations.

Regular offerings and gifts are accepted and administered through the church and school offices and their designees (usually the Director of Finances), with final authority to accept offerings and gifts being with the Director of Ministries.

Certain categories of donations are not acceptable as charitable gifts to Christ Lutheran and cannot be deducted as a charitable contribution:

- Funds accepted as payment for tuition or fees.
- Gifts made with the condition that Christ Lutheran will spend the proceeds for the personal benefit of a named individual or individuals. Christ Lutheran's various Scholarship programs qualify in that it selects a student on behalf of the donor.

Proposed gifts which may expose Christ Lutheran to adverse publicity; require undue expenditures; or involve Christ Lutheran in unexpected responsibilities because of the source, condition or purposes of the gift, will be referred for review to the Director of Finances. The Director Finances will oversee the acceptance and disposition of such questionable offerings and gifts and make a recommendation to the Director of Ministries for final action.

Gift-Giving Possibilities

Outright Gifts

Outright gifts are those placed at the immediate disposal of Christ Lutheran in which the donor retains no interest. The most frequent method used is a personal check payable to "Christ Lutheran," "Christ Lutheran Foundation," or "Christ Lincoln Schools." Christ Lutheran also welcomes cash, gifts made by credit card or direct withdrawal, gifts from corporations, fraternal companies, and foundations, and/or individuals, payroll deductions, gifts of securities, tangible personal property, real estate, collections, and other assets.

Fundraising Activities

Gifts in support of fundraising activities (auctions, dinners, rummage sales, youth events, etc.) are subject to the rules pertinent to the tax-deductible portion of the gift if goods or services are provided in exchange to the donor (e.g., the cost of the meal portion of a ticketed event is not a gift nor deductible).

Gifts of Stock

Gifts of closely held securities based on prior independent appraised value, paid for by the donor, and gifts of securities will be accepted. However, Christ Lutheran will not enter into any agreement that legally obligates Christ Lutheran to sell or otherwise dispose of the securities. Normally, the Director of Finances informs the Chief Operations Officer of the gift, with instructions to liquidate the items as soon as possible.

Gifts of Real Property

Christ Lutheran will not enter into any agreement to sell the property as a condition of receiving the gift of property.

Gifts of real property must first undergo a certified land appraisal and survey, title search, and an administrative audit as required by the Environmental Protection Agency or other relevant regulatory bodies. The donor must pay for the appraisal, survey, title search and environmental audit.

Gifts of real estate are made with the understanding that Christ Lutheran will ordinarily make its best effort to sell the property promptly (or else Christ Lutheran may incur non-related business income or may be subjected to property taxes). Christ Lutheran cannot guarantee that it will sell the property at the donor's appraised value. Christ Lutheran will not re-appraise or re-assign a value to real property for the donor's valuation purposes.

Donors may contribute property to Christ Lutheran, reserving the right to use the property for a term of years or life. In such cases, donors are obligated for all expenses related to the property.

Gifts of Other Property

In the case of vehicles, furniture or other personal property, Christ Lutheran will accept property with the intent to either use such property within its ministry or donate such property to a deserving person through its Care Ministry program. While Christ Lutheran will provide a receipt for the gift and, in some cases, provide the required documentation for the Internal Revenue Service, it is the donor's responsibility to obtain an independent expert appraisal, or to determine the value of the gift.

Deferred Gifts

Deferred or Planned gifts involve a current commitment by a donor to provide future funds to Christ Lincoln. If the donor intends to endow such gifts, then the donor will be encouraged to direct such gifts to the Christ Lutheran Foundation, the endowment arm of Christ Lutheran. These types of gifts generally can provide some combination of income, capital gain, gift or estate tax benefit.

The Director of Finances, the Christ Lutheran Foundation, and Christ Lutheran's legal advisors can provide detailed information about the minimum dollar amounts, interest rates, and other details associated with the acceptance of a direct or endowed planned or deferred gift.

Acceptable methods of creating deferred direct or endowed gifts to Christ Lutheran include:

- Will bequests
- Remainder interests in personal residences or farms
- Gifts of life insurance
- Retirement Accounts (401k, IRA, Keogh, etc.)
- Pension Fund Distributions
- Charitable Gift Annuities
- Pooled Income Funds
- Charitable Remainder Uni-trusts or Annuity Trusts
- Charitable Lead Trusts

Designated Bequests

A designated bequest provided to Christ Lutheran shall be applied according to the details of the donor's will or trust unless such request conflicts with the beliefs, mission, ministry, or operations of Christ Lincoln. In the case of conflict, the Director of Ministries shall have the authority to reject or receive the designated bequest with the stated conditions.

Undesignated Bequests

Undesignated bequests to Christ Lutheran up to $100,000 can be used at the discretion of the Director of Ministries. Bequests from $100,000.01 to $250,000 will require that the DOM obtains approval from the Lay Leadership Board. Bequests greater than $250,000 require that the DOM consults with the Lay Leadership Board and obtain congregational approval on the use of the funds at a regular or special Congregational Meeting.

Appropriate uses of the funds include the following:

- Mission work outside of Christ Lutheran
- Mission work within the Christ Lutheran congregation
- Mission of Christ Lutheran Schools
- Current operations (budgeted areas)
- Capital improvements (building, upgrade, or maintenance)
- Debt reduction
- Endowment (Christ Lutheran Foundation)
- Cash reserves.

Recognition

To respect confidentiality, gifts are only recognized in a private manner unless otherwise arranged with permission of the donor(s). For special programs and campaigns generally, a list of donors or a recognition plaque may be used, again with the donor's permission.

Solicitation of Gifts

(Adapted from Association of Lincoln Development Executives, ALDE, Code of Ethics)

All entities of Christ Lutheran, as well as its volunteers who are involved in seeking donations will:

1. Seek to serve Christ faithfully and hold His name as supreme.
2. Work for the best interest of the donor.
3. Strive to model and promote the concept of Christian Stewardship among donors and involved professionals.
4. Portray an accurate and institutional mission in all communications.
5. Maintain confidentiality in handling donor and prospective donor records.
6. Offer public recognition and appreciation for a gift only after donor permission has been granted.
7. Ensure accurate use of designated gifts, optimal management of all solicited funds, and truthful reporting.
8. Comply with all federal, state, municipal laws.
9. Deal charitably, fairly, and honestly with other professionals and organizations.
10. Maintain and encourage high levels of professional competence and accurately present professional qualifications and experiences to prospective donors.

11. Be compensated by a salary or contractual fee agreement, not by fees based on a percentage of charitable funds secured.
12. Avoid or otherwise disclose all potential conflicts of interest.

Legal Disclaimer

While Christ Lutheran Church, DBA Christ Lincoln, and its personnel will strive to maintain a high level of familiarity with current tax laws and policies, these people are unable to give legal and accounting advice to donors. Donors and prospective donors should always confer with their own legal counsel or tax advisors for opinions about tax or other legal consequences of a specific gift.

Various methods of gifting can provide flexibility, security and tax savings to donors. The Director of Biblical Generosity is available to provide personalized assistance to donors seeking to understand and choose from a wide range of gift-giving possibilities. In the event that additional expertise is required, the LCMS Foundation, local attorneys, certified public accountants, and charitable estate planning officers at local colleges and charities may be available at a reduced or no cost to members and friends of Christ Lincoln.

Christ Lutheran may seek the advice of legal counsel in matters pertaining to deferred or planned giving. Planned giving agreements will generally follow the format of specimen agreements approved by legal counsel. Prospective donors are urged to seek their own counsel in matters relating to their planned gifts, tax circumstances and estate planning.

Donors are welcome to offer suggestions on how their funds may be used and Christ Lincoln is committed to honoring such wishes. Thus, Christ Lincoln shall make every reasonable effort to respect the wishes of its donors. However, to comply with federal tax laws and Internal Revenue Service regulations, Christ Lincoln must retain the exclusive authority, discretion, and legal control over all donated funds.

Appendix I: Financial Gift Policy

Purpose

Christ Lutheran recognizes that occasionally the costs of many activities, events, facility improvements or other purposes are not included in the general fund budget of the church. Organizations, departments, and ministries within the church may have a need or desire to raise funds for such purposes and may wish to use church facilities and resources for fundraising efforts. Such fundraising efforts are subject to the policies and procedures listed below. It should be recognized that fundraising efforts of this type are not a replacement for stewardship and budgeting and should not be used as a primary means of meeting the normal operating needs of the church. Specific exceptions will occur and will be approved on a case-by-case basis as outlined below.

Fundraising Approval Process

- Fundraising requests can only be made by a Christ Lutheran recognized organization partner, departments, or ministry. Requests shall be made in writing to the department of Biblical Generosity at least four weeks prior to the planned fundraising efforts.
- Fundraising requests will be approved by the department of Biblical Generosity. Special cases (outlined throughout this document) may require additional approval from the Executive Team.
- Approval of requests shall be determined based on the following factors:
 - the logistics pertaining to scheduling, space reservation, associated costs, staffing needs, and other matters associated with the implementation of said fundraising effort allow for it to occur.
 - the fundraising effort helps to serve Christ Lutheran's mission and vision.
 - the fundraising effort is for a clear need or purpose.
 - If the requesting organization partner, department or ministry has requested special fundraising efforts previously during this budget year.
 - amount and frequency of previous requests from requestor.
 - the state of giving to the General Fund and Campaigns.
 - other factors and considerations deemed appropriate.

- Once a fundraising effort has been approved, it does not need to go through the entire approval process again for subsequent occasions. It does, however, need to be brought up to the department of Biblical Generosity for a shorter review and to discuss any changes from the previous occasion. The fundraising effort is still bound by all other provisions of this policy. Appealing a Denied Request
- Should a fundraising request be denied, the department of Biblical Generosity may provide suggestions for modifying said request, so that it may be approved. If such changes are unacceptable or the request is denied again, the applicant may file an appeal by email with the Executive Team to be discussed at the soonest available meeting for a potential waiver.
- Any request denied based on account of logistical concerns shall not be appealable to the Executive Team.
- Any appeal of a denial shall require a majority vote by the Executive Team.

Reporting of Results

- A full accounting of money raised, or goods and/or services collected and to whom these items are distributed shall be provided to the department of Biblical Generosity after the completion of the fundraising efforts. It is the responsibility of the organization partner, department, or ministry to coordinate this with the Finance department. This accounting is due no more than one month after the fundraising effort ends.

Revocation of Fundraising Approval

- The same criteria used in determining the approval of a fundraising request may be used to determine that a fundraising effort's standing as approved should be revoked. Upon such an occurrence, the department of Biblical Generosity must provide the reason for the revocation, and allow the offending group a reasonable time, not to exceed two weeks, to explain and/or correct its errors. If the department of Biblical Generosity wishes to proceed with revocation following the two-week time frame, then the matter will be forwarded on to the Executive Team.
- The department of Biblical Generosity has the authority to put a "freeze" on fundraising efforts when revocation is recommended until the Executive Team makes a decision.

Policy Review

- This policy shall be reviewed on a yearly basis by the department of Biblical Generosity in conjunction with the Executive Team. Any changes must be approved by the Executive Team.
